

CRAWFORD CASE MAY BE ACTED ON NEXT WEEK

Famous Suit Sure to Be Among First Which Grand Jury Will Consider

During the next week it is probable that the Fulton county grand jury will take some action in the case of Mrs. Mary J. Crawford, who is charged by a justice court warrant with the murder in 1907 of her husband, John H. Crawford, wealthy and powerful Atlanta.

The grand jury was anxious to dispose of all of the pending business possible, and the foreman has especially named the Crawford case to be acted on by the grand jury as early as possible.

Mr. Stephens on Tuesday stated to Judge W. D. Ellis, of the superior court, that the grand jury was anxious to hear the evidence in the Crawford case and to dispose of the bill pending against her. Before the matter can come before the grand jury some attorney will have to be appointed to act as its general, as Solicitor Dorsey is disqualified.

Solicitor Reid, of the Stone Mountain circuit, was named to act in this case in the case of Mrs. Mary J. Crawford, who is charged by a justice court warrant with the murder in 1907 of her husband, John H. Crawford, wealthy and powerful Atlanta.

It is expected that Judge Ellis, following his conference with the assistant solicitor, will appoint Colonel George M. Napier, who is to be named solicitor of the Stone Mountain circuit, to succeed Mr. Reid, to act in the Crawford matter. It is expected that the case could reach the grand jury by its next meeting, Wednesday.

GEORGIANS WILL DOWN COTTON FUTURES

Delegations From This State and South Carolina to Oppose Tax

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 29.—The Georgia and South Carolina delegations in the house decided unanimously this morning to oppose the cotton futures tax proposed on cotton futures tax in any form, when the question comes up on the first test of the house immediately after the conference on the tariff bill was taken up for consideration. Under an agreement the cotton futures matter will not be touched until later in the day.

The parliamentary status of cotton futures is such as to justify and demand an adverse vote on the first test of strength. If congressmen opposed to the Clarke amendment want to maintain its defeat. The first test will come on a motion to recommit the Clarke amendment. If this carries, the Clarke amendment will be brought to a vote in the house.

It was decided by the Georgians and South Carolinians that in the event of their meeting defeat in their attempt to prevent the house from receding, they shall vote against concurrence in the Clarke amendment and vote for the Smith-Lever substitute, which they regard as more preferable.

Congressman Lever, of South Carolina, author of the Smith-Lever substitute, declared that in his opinion the whole question would fail. He believes the house will refuse to recede, and that the senate will eliminate the objectionable amendment from the tariff bill.

THE LADIES' FAVORITE

They All Concede the Superiority of the Imperial Patterns

In this age of progress there is always something better being produced every day. The old-style patterns for embroidery were very good until an improved process for transferring them was invented which goes hand-in-hand with the Imperial Pattern, and entirely eliminates the time and trouble of the hot iron method.

HUB TALLEY LANGUISHES IN COBB COUNTY JAIL

"Kid" Dukes Is Keeping Hub
From Being Lonesome in the Dungeon Keep

Hub Talley, the notorious, whom Atlanta police have arrested time and again as a blind tiger and for other alleged offenses, languishes now in the Cobb county jail at Marietta. With him in the dungeon keep is a one-time prize fighter, known as "Kid" Dukes. The two of them are being held for the state courts to try.

They are accused of having tried to head off the way a train, and of having related an officer. Monday evening the conductor of a passenger train bound through Marietta, going north, put them off and delivered them into the custody of a policeman, saying they had refused to pay their fare. The policeman, attempting to put handcuffs on Talley, found him a tough customer, and in the ensuing wrangle a pistol fell from Talley's hip pocket. Both were jailed without much more ado.

ORME ATTACHED FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT

Frank Orme, secretary and treasurer of the Southern States Life Insurance company, was attached for contempt of court by Judge J. T. Pendleton, of the superior court, Tuesday morning because he had failed to answer a subpoena for jury duty.

The Georgia state introduced physicians' certificates to show that his wife is unable to appear in the court.

Judge Pendleton released him with a lecture, and in a statement to the deputy sheriffs, instructed them to attach every man who is served with jury subpoenas and who fails to appear in the court.

HISTORY OF ATLANTA TO BE TOLD AT LIBRARY

Atlantians Invited to Help
Make "Atlanta Room"
More Complete

The history of Atlanta and Georgia, from early to modern times, will be the principal theme this year of the quarterly bulletin of the library. Just issued, says that the plan is also to have some of the older residents of Atlanta tell to the children their early experiences. Uncle Remus stories also are to be told. When spring and grand opera season roll around, a series of grand opera stories will be introduced into the program. For the springtime program of the younger children, a course formed partly by bird and flower stories has been planned. Miss Amelia Whitaker, in charge of the children's room at the main library, who arranged the reading lists, and Miss Henrietta Muscine, who will tell the stories, arranged the program together. Friday will be story day at the main library and Wednesday at the Anne Wallace branch.

Atlantians are invited again to contribute old books, manuscripts, pictures, personal letters and relics to the collection already started in the "Atlanta room" of the main library. Everything about Atlanta will be preserved there. "We want every item of Atlanta history," says Miss Katherine Wootton, the librarian.

REV. JOHN S. JENKINS HIT BY AUTOMOBILE

Rev. John S. Jenkins, missionary secretary of the North Georgia conference of the Methodist church, was struck by an automobile as he stepped from a street car at the corner of Cheshire and Highland avenues about noon Tuesday, and painfully but not seriously injured. Mr. Jenkins was knocked to the pavement with terrific force and his left arm crushed so that he was taken to a sanitarium. He suffered other bruises, but of enough to confine him.

Mr. Jenkins stated that the driver of the automobile, without signaling, darted past just as the street car stopped. The machine was going at a rapid rate. Mr. Jenkins says, and did not stop when it struck him. He was unable to get the number.

Rev. Jenkins is one of Atlanta's leading ministers, and his friends will be gratified to know that his injuries were not more serious.

READ IN NEWSPAPER THAT HUSBAND WANTED DIVORCE

Mrs. Mary Barton, against whom J. O. Barton recently filed a sensational suit for divorce, on Tuesday entered a formal answer together with a cross-bill, asking alimony.

Mrs. Barton asserts that she considered herself living in a "state of matrimony" until she read in a newspaper that her husband had filed a suit for divorce. She declares that she was shocked and that she finally one of his daughters had to have him arrested for whipping her.

Mrs. Barton declares that she could live in perfect happiness with Barton if it were not for his "vicious habit of abusing her."

MASTER OF HUNDREDS OF TERRAPINS IN ATLANTA

With "Toby" in His Pocket, W. M. Barbee, of Savannah, Arrived Here Monday

Seven little terrapins were born Monday at the Georgian Terrace hotel—a very proper place for them to be born, for they are aristocrats in their own right and the per capita wealth of their tribe is considerable. Their girth and foster parent is A. M. Barbee, of the Isle of Hope, Savannah, who is a resident a few days at the Terrace on his way upon a tour of northern cities, but the feeding of them is a very simple matter and will require little attention from Mr. Barbee, inasmuch as they will eat nothing at all for the next six months. Which is an economical state of affairs in these days of high living.

Mr. Barbee left their progenitors in his terrapin crawl on the Isle of Hope, bringing the youngsters with him in their respective eggs in a specially devised traveling case. The case holds a series of eggs, all dated accurately, which will hatch of their own accord, one set after another, each day while Mr. Barbee is on his tour. Mr. Barbee's trip is to be one of demonstration at first hand among the epistates of the South to show them that he can and does raise the delicious diamond back terrapin which the government once said it was impossible to raise and for which the government authorities promised extinction within a short while. "I have convinced the government that it was mistaken," said Mr. Barbee Tuesday. "Now I am bent upon rearing the folks who have lost their much worth living without diamond back terrapin once in a while, that there is no cause for alarm. While there's the Isle of Hope, there's life."

With Mr. Barbee in his great pal and traveling companion, Toby Diamond Back, a three-year-old terrapin who is as wise as some people. Toby has been on several long trips with Mr. Barbee, who evades paying railroad fare for him by the simple expedient of putting Toby in his pocket while he is riding. Toby comes when called by his name, and eats serenely out of Mr. Barbee's hand.

According to Mr. Barbee, the baby terrapins are hatched sixty days after the mama terrapin lays the eggs in the little sand mound in the Isle of Hope crawl. By next April, he says, the terrapins now hatching will begin to grow hungry, and from then on through the rest of their lives they will eat lettuce and shrimps and cabbage and such food. Diamond backs are best to eat, he says, when they have the six-inch mark. It takes about five years for a terrapin to reach that measurement across the back of its hard shell.

For the past several years Mr. Barbee has been raising diamond back terrapins for the markets of the world, shipping them to foreign lands as well as to home cities. He gets $18 a dozen for them, which leaves a very fair margin of profit for Mr. Barbee. Inasmuch as there are some 6,000 terrapins right now in the Isle of Hope crawl, with more arriving as fast as the older ones are shipped, Mr. Barbee can enjoy his own leisure very comfortably.

State Game Warden Jesse Mercer regards Mr. Barbee's discovery as one of high importance from the standpoint of

Keeping the Body in Repair

Nature intended that the body should do its own repairing—and it would do so were it not for the fact that most of us live other than a natural life.

Nature didn't intend that we should wear corsets, tight collars or shoes, nor live in badly ventilated and draughty houses, nor eat and drink some of the things that we do, nor ride in street cars when we should walk.

The consequence is that the body when it gets out of order must look for outside help to make the necessary repairs.

SOUTH GEORGIA HUMMER

IS GIVEN FINE WELCOME

New Train on A. B. & A. Makes First Run—Daily Except Sunday

The first train on the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic's new schedule of a one-day round trip to Atlanta were run Monday.

"The start was a dandy success," said W. W. Croston, general passenger agent of the road, Tuesday morning. The authorities of the road were pleased exceedingly by the interest manifested all along the line and by the repeated assurances that the new schedule will meet with such favor that it cannot help being a winner.

The new train has been named "The South Georgia Hummer," and very appropriately, too, for it comes from a section that hums with industry, and it is a busy venture itself.

The "Hummer" operates between Cordele and Atlanta, with connections to and from Roanoke, Ala., the connections being made at Manchester. It runs into Atlanta in the morning, leaving Cordele at 6:15 o'clock, the Alabama section arriving in Atlanta as one train at 12:35 o'clock, at the Union station, right in the heart of the city. The "Hummer" leaves Atlanta each afternoon at 4 o'clock, putting its passengers at home even at the terminals that evening at a very comfortable bedtime. The round trip is made every day except Sunday.

MACON GINER MAY DIE FROM NEGRO'S ATTACK

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
MACON, Ga., Sept. 30.—A. G. Cooper, gin manager and superintendent of the farm of J. Thompson in the Ruthen District near Macon, is in the Macon hospital suffering from a fractured skull he sustained when Mack Johnson, a negro laborer, struck him with a iron bar. Mr. Cooper is in a critical condition and doctors say he will not live. Johnson is in the Rith county jail awaiting developments in the condition of Mr. Cooper.

SUNDAY MAIL WANTED BY POSTMASTER JONES

Asks for Open General Delivery Window and 10 o'clock Box Service

Two innovations, an open general delivery window on Sundays, and the 10 o'clock postoffice box service on Sunday, have been requested of the department by Postmaster Jones.

Both these services were discontinued during the Hitchcock "economy" administration. At that time box distribution was stopped after midnight Saturday.

The new train has been named "The South Georgia Hummer," and very appropriately, too, for it comes from a section that hums with industry, and it is a busy venture itself.

The new train has been named "The South Georgia Hummer," and very appropriately, too, for it comes from a section that hums with industry, and it is a busy venture itself.

The "Hummer" operates between Cordele and Atlanta, with connections to and from Roanoke, Ala., the connections being made at Manchester. It runs into Atlanta in the morning, leaving Cordele at 6:15 o'clock, the Alabama section arriving in Atlanta as one train at 12:35 o'clock, at the Union station, right in the heart of the city. The "Hummer" leaves Atlanta each afternoon at 4 o'clock, putting its passengers at home even at the terminals that evening at a very comfortable bedtime. The round trip is made every day except Sunday.

ENTHUSIASTIC REVIVAL AT ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

Officials of the St. Paul Methodist church believe that the result of the first three days of the revival services under the direction of Rev. L. R. Bridges, indicates the most successful revival in the history of the church.

Extensive preparations are being made for the great mass meeting for men only to be held next Sunday afternoon. A number of interesting features are to be announced later.

Mr. Bridges will deliver two sermons daily during the revival services, which will continue through next week. At 10:30 o'clock each morning there will be a song service followed by the sermon at 11. The evening services will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

HAIR COMING OUT? GOT DANDRUFF OR DOES SCALP ITCH?—25-CENT DANDERINE

Save your hair! Make it soft, fluffy, lustrous and beautiful

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine, and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and texture, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.

Hart Schaffner & Marx Suits at $25.00

Will get you over the idea that you have to pay $40 to $50 to tailors in order to get that "custom-made-look"—the main difference between made-to-measure and H. S. & M. clothes is the price. Drop in and try on one of the new models.

The Nettleton Shoes Are Here!

All the newest lasts and leathers are included in this the greatest assortment of shoes shown in Atlanta. $6.00 & $7.00

Braselton Replies to Thomson's Eleventh Hour Attack

IF the city tax fi. fa. of 1912 referred to by Mr. Thomson was not made from the fact that the same piece of property was returned for taxes by myself as lessee of the corner of Ellis and Peachtree and by Mr. J. B. Frost as owner through a mistake caused by a 99-year lease, and if the taxes which said fi. fa. as issued for was not paid during the year 1912, I will resign as alderman from the fourth ward, which I will be elected to today by the biggest majority of any candidate for alderman in the race.

¶ As to my not being registered, I am just one of the five or six thousand citizens of Atlanta who have been disfranchised by the ring politics in this special primary. The ring politicians allowed such little time for registration that between five and six thousand people failed to get registered.

¶ As to Mr. Thomson being backed by ring politics, petty politics and petty politicians, I positively state that I was forced as a candidate against Mr. Thomson for alderman for the fourth ward to go to his private office, his business office, and pay my entrance fee so that I could become a candidate for alderman from the fourth ward.

¶ Mr. Thomson says now that he voted for the referendum and recall, but he did not vote to let the people vote and he would not trust the people to vote, and he cannot deny it. It's a matter of record.

DODGEN'S WIFE FILES

SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Declares He Treated Her Cruelly and Was in Habitual State of Intoxication

A sensational suit for divorce has been filed against James H. Dodgen, the lawyer, by his pretty young wife, Mrs. Kate K. Dodgen, who alleges cruel treatment and habitual intoxication.

As the result of the attorney's action, Mrs. Dodgen declares that she is constantly in fear of her life, and as a result among other things that Dodgen has fired a revolver in her bedroom.

The wife sets out in her petition that they were married in May, 1910, and separated in July, 1911, when Dodgen left her out of the house and locked the door.

The petition alleges that Dodgen is guilty of habitual intoxication and that for many months past he has been in a state of continual drunkenness. He has repeatedly assaulted himself from their home during the early hours of the morning, Mrs. Dodgen asserts, and threatens he would bring intoxicated company home with him.

He has cursed in her presence, she declares, using vulgar, coarse and degrading expressions.

Often he has otherwise abused and threatened her, the attorney's wife charges, and has repeatedly shot a revolver in her bedroom and torn up his clothing.

Several times she has been in such terror of her husband, the wife declares in her petition, that she has been forced to flee from their home at 3 or 4 o'clock in the morning and seek her protection of relatives.

During the greater part of their married life, Mrs. Dodgen asserts, she has made her own living, her husband refusing to do so.

Her final separation he drove her from home and locked the doors, she says. Dodgen makes $250 per month from practice as an attorney, Mrs. Dodgen declares, and she asks the courts to award her both temporary and permanent alimony, and attorney's fees.

In addition to a divorce she asks the restoration of her maiden name.

Mrs. Dodgen is represented by Attorney Felix, Anderson, Coburn & White-man.

STORE IS BURGLARIZED IN HEART OF CITY

The fact that the Cox Prescription Shop, 45 Peachtree street, in the heart of the city, was burglarized Sunday morning has become known through employees of the place.

The burglar, who robbed the cash register, carefully removed a large plate glass from the door in the front of the shop, and gained entrance in that way, carefully sitting the plate glass to one side.

According to Frank Campbell, clerk, who was notified of the burglary by the police at 4 o'clock in the morning, it must have taken the burglar half an hour to complete the job.

The burglary was discovered by Patrolman Scott. The downtown beat is now guarded by several other patrolmen and a sergeant.

ANSLEY HEADQUARTERS FOR AUTOMOBILE SHOW

At a meeting of the Atlanta automobile club Monday the Hotel Ansley was designated and adopted as official headquarters for the automobile show which takes place in November. The Ansley will make elaborate preparations for the coming of those who will attend the show. An office will be tendered the officials for registration and other business details for the show, on the main floor of the Ansley. The club has now there will be unusual activity to be and that this year's exhibition will show by far the one of last year.

Very prominent factory in the world will have some of their latest models on the floor of the auditorium where the big event is to be pulled off.

SCHOOLS STILL CROWDED: SLATON BLAMES COUNCIL

Children Have to Use Rough Benches in Lieu of Desks, He Says

In a statement recently issued William M. Slaton, superintendent of the city schools, blames council for the congested condition of the Highland Avenue school, which has occasioned considerable criticism.

Superintendent Slaton denies the rumor that children have been compelled to sit on the floor at the school, but states that it is almost impossible properly to accommodate all who apply for admission, because of a lack of desks.

Rough benches have been placed around the edges of the class rooms and the children use these, he says.

A number of desks have been ordered for the school, the superintendent states, and when they arrive, he will be able to handle the situation.

Mr. Slaton declares that work on the Moreland school is being pushed as rapidly as possible, and that he expects to open the school on Monday. This will greatly facilitate the handling of the increased school attendance, he says.

LYCEUM SEASON OPENS HERE ON NOVEMBER 7

The prospect of an Atlanta lyceum season that will open with a political address by Senator La Follette is attracting hundreds of patrons to the advance sale for the Alhambra course, which is on this week.

President Russell Bridges expresses the belief that the lyceum attendance this season will be the largest in the city's history. The course is by far the most notable, including such names as La Follette, William J. Burns, Ben-jamin Chaslin, Dr. Frank Dixon, and others.

The season sale continues through this week only. The opening number will be on November 7. All the entertainments will be held in the auditorium of the Baptist Tabernacle.

Monument to Barry

How About Starting
With the Dining Room
Floor, So to Speak?

You've heard of the man whose daughter was a suffragette, haven't you?

"What do the suffragettes want anyhow?" he asked her.

"Why we want to sweep the country, Dad."

"Well, all right then. Suppose you begin with the dining room floor."

Dad was right. He wasn't unlike the old lady whose husband kept a store. Also he whittled a good deal and made things sociable for the local politicians. They'd all sit around and save the nation, lay out a program for Congress, settle the tariff, and other little matters of that sort.

This didn't leave so mighty much time for cleaning up the store and pushing business.

"Si," said the old lady in her man o' war voice one day when she ran into a full-fledged debate on the currency question. "You git up from here. I'm plum tired o' hearing you all, running the government while them front windows needs washin' so bad."

And it's pretty safe to guess that Si got busy on the front windows right away.

Commerce, like charity and cleaning-up, should begin at home.

That's the way we feel about it and that's why we are spending time and money telling our HOME-FOLKS that they ought to use ATLANTA-MADE goods.

Once upon a time there was an advertising man who crystallized his advertising creed into a batch of splendid little paragraphs.

He was a thinker as well as an ad-man (which may sound funny); but anyhow he managed to corral a lot of good ideas and out of them he made him a creed.

Here's the heart of it:

"I BELIEVE in the house I am with; in its soundness, its integrity, the wisdom of its methods and the goodness of its merchandise.

"I BELIEVE in my public; in its friendliness to my house; in its appreciation of our honesty, our methods, our ability.

"I BELIEVE in talking in print to my public confidentially, that our confidence is mutual; WE DO NOT FAIL EACH OTHER."

That, brother, is SOME creed!

It's a good one for every mother's child of us who is concerned with the business end of a Supply-and-Demand proposition, salesman, merchant, manufacturer, consumer.

It's a good one for ATLANTA.

Adapted to ATLANTA, here's what it comes to:

"I BELIEVE IN MYSELF. I've got the best assets on the face of the earth, men who cherish me, women who love me, merchants who uphold me, manufacturers who enrich me, workers who boost me, a citizenship that honors me!

"Besides, I have the ATLANTA SPIRIT, the tonic marvelous!

"I BELIEVE IN MY FOLKS, their pride, their enthusiasm, their desire to set me upon the pinnacle of commercial fame.

"I, too, BELIEVE IN TALKING to my people, my public, in a confidential way. AND—

"I BELIEVE THAT WE WILL NOT FAIL EACH OTHER."

Thus ATLANTA.

ATLANTA has more factories than any other town of her size in the country.

These factories produce more and better goods, and in wider variety, than the factories of any other town of ATLANTA's size. We who sign this bulletin are manufacturers of PURE FOODS.

These goods are sold in a daily expanding market. They are growing in fame and favor.

They are traveling far and traveling fast. Merit is the motive-power. They are bought with eagerness and used with confidence by thousands of people all over the State, the South, the Country.

The going is good. We're well pleased. But—

We folks who sign this message to you don't propose that a prophet shall be without honor in his own country.

In other words, we are just setting out in a vigorous, whole-soled campaign to show why it is to your own individual advantage, ATLANTA MEN AND WOMEN, to buy and use ATLANTA MADE STUFF.

Make up your mind to help us. Start home—your own home. Your grocer will give you what you want, if you only make it plain to him.

Look over this list and get our goods. They're the best you can buy.

They're a-going to sweep the country, but we want to start with our own dining-rooms.

—An informal event of the morning was the bridge party at which Miss Lila Brown entertained eight guests at her home on West Peachtree.

—Mr. Charles McKie, who has been visiting in Huntington, W. Va., is at present in Portsmouth, O., where he will remain for some time.

—An even of the evening will be the informal dance at which the bachelors of Paradise hall will entertain at their home in Ansey park.

—Miss Minnie Bellamy, who has been ill for the past two weeks at her home on Capitol avenue, is improving slowly.

—Miss Floyd Willford, who has been ill for the past few weeks at St. John's infirmary, is convalescing slowly at her home.

—Miss Beale Walton, of Madison, is the guest of Mrs. John McCullough.

—Mr. E. H. Goodhart is in Washington, D. C., for a short stay.

Why Should
He Worry?

WHEN the boy comes home from romping and playing, he usually finds with him a keen appetite—add, if he has any worry, all—likely to be about getting something good to eat!

That worry, however, will quickly disappear if you'll give him a few slices of the BEST, that can be made—that's

Furs.Our Entire Fourth Floor
Tomorrow a Beautiful Panorama of Fashions

Palms and Flowers Wave a Welcome

The salons of women's dress on the Fourth Floor will assuredly be the center of attraction for a host of Atlanta beauty-loving women tomorrow.

A display unexcelled in the presentation of the new and beautiful, and unsurpassed in the faithful interpretation of present fashions. It is an accomplishment extraordinary from a merchandising standpoint, and an event of unusual interest to women—an occasion, so to speak, for their personal education in matters of dress. It presents to the cosmopolitan eye the fashion tendencies of the world—the chosen and accepted of connoisseurs in styles.

From Whitehall street to Broad street—the entire Fourth Floor invites your inspection. There are new wonders in apparel delight at every turn. There are color combinations, audacious in thought, but toned to subtleties in decorative scheme; materials that seemingly revel in their own richness.

Garnitures with elegance to satisfy the most ardent lovers of luxury—all without one dissonant note.

This is our most resplendent Fashion Exhibit, planned for the indulgence of our following of Fashionable Folk. It is unique in its position as the deciding factor in dress—its stands alone in importance and exclusiveness, in the history of our merchandising career.

Here Is the Best Feature of the Event

Every Garment Included in the Special Display to Be Sold at Special Prices.

25 to 50% Less
Than the Regular Value

Yesterday's Express Brought Them—Which tells you that every garment is new—never shown before.

The Pricing is really marvelously low as you will observe as you read, but more so as you see the superb apparel Wednesday, in all of its beauty and indescribable charm.

And There Are Correct Costumes
for Every Occasion

Dinner gowns of silks, satins, velvets and chiffons, with garnitures of gold and silver, pearly sequins, crystal in its most scintillating form, and a wealth of laces, chiffons and kindred filmy stuffs. There are gowns of simple elegance with a dignity becoming the grande dame and fanciful frocks for la jeune fille. Dancing Dresses as light as a summer zephyr and stately garments that deign the decorative touch of little but their own colorings.

Of Special Interest to la Debutante

For la debutante, dresses as varied as the functions attending her formal debut. There are afternoon gowns in scores of variations. The foaming chiffon and lace billows of the evening and dance dresses bring into high relief marvelous combinations of trimmings and color tones, brilliants and beadwork which catch new lights and shadows at every turn.

And all the way down a long list of gowns to the simple little dress of serge, worn thrice perhaps, a dozen times before the dinner gowns airs its newness. There is a noticeable refreshing difference, that bids this new apparel welcome.

Superb Evening and Afternoon
Wraps

Mark you the lines of the new wrap! Therein lies its success. None but the world's best artists could conceive departures so marked, so highly artistic, so partial to the sumptuousness of fashionable materials.

"SLIPPING ONE OVER" ON THE CHINK

---BY FARREN

THE SPORTLIGHT BY GRANTLAND RICE

As we make brief inspection of the box score evolved from the second battle of the 1911 series, our fancy drifts at once to a piece of ash furniture—a loud, rasping noise and a right field fence some 100 feet away:

Left on bases—Giants 3. Athletics 2. First base on errors—Athletics 1. Two-base hits—Collins, Herzog. Home run—Baker. Hits—Of Marquard 4 in eight innings. Struck out—By Marquard 4, by Crandall 2, by Plank 8. Hit by pitched ball—By Plank (Snodgrass). Wild Pitch—Marquard. Umpire—Connolly behind the bat. Brennan on bases, Dineen on right field foul line, Klern on left field foul line. That same piece of ash furniture—rasping noise and right field fence settled the issue of the series beyond all doubt. They were there in 1911—and their producer will again be on deck for 1913, looming ahead as one of the most dangerous single factors of the series. You guessed it the first time. The name is John Franklin Baker, of Trappe, Md.

BAKER AND THE DOPE. Baker showed in that series the tremendous value of one keen-eyed, long distance clouter—doubly valuable in the drift of close scoring.

After a brief case of fluttering duck fitts, Marquard had rallied and swept into one of the finest pitching strikes he has ever known. The game had been tied up, the sixth round was on, and there were two out, when Collins doubled and the Trappe error arrived with his bristling bluejeans. Rubb, still confident, stuck a high, fast one over, and two seconds later there was a round, white blot against the azure sky—and the end of a hard-fought, pitched battle.

Collins started the upheaval in that innink and Baker finished it. These two are still on deck, hitting the ball as mightily as ever, and to ever beat the Mackmen Giant pitchers must at least hold this pair in check—a job almost as easy as suppressing a hurricane or curbing a typhoon across the south seas.

These are the two that lead the Mackian assault, and the Giants have no pair like them to set fire to the fuse.

To show the value of two such people, inhale once more the circumstances. Marquard couldn't have pitched a fiercer game. He allowed but four hits and failed to yield a pass—yet of these four hits two came together and the last drifted on beyond the mortal sight of the 30,000 who saw the game.

WHAT THEY MEAN. Long distance battine means even more in such a brief series than in 154 games. And Mack has two such volleyers to McGraw's.

MARQUARD AND PLANK. Plank in that battle was at his best—far beyond his form of 1905.

But two years have passed since then—and two years are long sections of a lifetime when one is thirty-nine and a toiler on the mound. He has been battered harder in the last two months than at any period of his career, and there is room to question the guess that he can pitch another game like that.

But the two years that have put Plank from 37 to 39, have passed up Marquard from 22 to 24. They have proved one man well on beyond his pitching prime—and they have pulled the other that much further up the highway of experience, with his prime still beyond.

GIANT EDGE. Plank is one of the game's wonders—but there are always limits to any battle against time. He can be no better and will hardly be as good, while Marquard shows what experience meant in his two starts last year, where he was hit a trifle harder but with less deadly effect.

All that Mack will ask of Plank is one well-pitched game. It isn't probable that he will be good for two. But in Marquard, McGraw has a left-hander who can go the route twice at top speed, and who will be even harder to hit.

PLANK MARVEL. One doesn't improve at thirty-seven as one does at twenty-two—upon the ball field. Plank certainly has not come forward; Marquard has. The veteran has learned to learn two years ago while the youngster had a lot. He has as much stuff, and what is more to the point, as much class at hand, under better control for emergencies.

Marquard has a harder job to pitch to than Plank will face. But with a good rest ahead and the confidence inspired by his two victories last fall, the Mackian will look upon a different pitcher; and, barring Collins and Baker, they found him hard enough then.

PLANK A MARVEL. The wonder of it is that Plank at thirty-nine years, six years older than Mathewson, should still be held as one of the factors of a championship series. He is the steadiest left hander that ever threw a ball—one of the coolest and one of the wisest. He will have plenty of rest, and for that one game in which he works will wear watching.

THE FIRST BREAK. After a brief flutter the first day, Mack's fielding corps settled to its work. And it was here that the Giant support first began to reel and crumble—as it has done in almost every world series game since. This portion of their post-season play for two years must be eliminated or they have no chance. An extra time at bat allotted to almost any of Mack's lectors may bring disaster at any moment. The slabsman facing this Philadelphia club has enough to do with valiant backs, much less the other type.

Along which line it may be noted that McGraw's team has set this season and is playing with the greatest steadiness it has ever shown since assuming a championship role.

Marquard has improved for McGraw and his field play has come forward since that second battle of 1911, but Collins and Baker are still there and back of them ranges Stuffy McInnis, holding intact the old 250 triumph.

Take Up Writing By Ball Player. NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The National commission will meet here on Monday to make final arrangements for the world's series between the New York National and Philadelphia American league clubs. Among the matters which will be considered is the selection of certain players since the commission's action last week in ruling that the writing of the championship baseball will be left to the recognized baseball reporters.

Canada Star Wins Tourney

MONTREAL, Sept. 30.—British and American champions of today had to bow to the prowess of Miss Nesbitt, of Woodstock, in the qualifying round of the women's golf championship of Canada, played on the links of the Royal Montreal club, so far as the low score was concerned. Miss Nesbitt turned in a net card of 80 for the 18 holes, while the best Miss Muriel Dodd, the English champion, and Mrs. R. H. Barlow, of Philadelphia, the American champion, could do was, respectively, 88 and 94. Miss Gladys Ravenscroft, last year's English champion, made the round in 82.

Thirty-eight of the eighty-six entrants qualified.

Those eligible to continue included:

Grand Rapids Wins

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Sept. 30.—The Central league pennant was today formally awarded to Grand Rapids by the league officials.

President Heilbroner authorized the statement that there is not to be the slightest change in the make-up of the circuit or an extension in its membership.

Milwaukee Wins In Exciting Race

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—The American association closed Monday what President Chivington pronounced a very good season. Milwaukee is the new pennant winner, having won only after a close race.

Four clubs were pennant contenders this year. Besides Milwaukee, Columbus early in the season, Louisville and finally Minneapolis battled at the top and the keenness of the race and the uncertainty of its outcome kept the enthusiasts all over the circuit interested.

Halpin Sets Mark

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—At the annual fall athletic games of the New York Athletic club at Travers Island today, Tom Halpin, of the Boston A. A., won the 600-yard handicap in 1:12, the best time made on this track since Harry the distance, 1:10-4-5, is held by W. W. Sheppard, but Halpin's time today was remarkable, as he was pocketed during the final lap.

Emory Teams Now at Work

EMORY COLLEGE, Oxford, Ga., Sept. 30.—Coach Shugler, who had his arm broken by the back firing of engine when he attempted to crank an automobile, was out for his first practice with the junior team Saturday afternoon. He carried his arm in a sling, but followed up a warm scrimmage for an hour, which consisted mainly in running signals.

Coach Peebles, of the sophomore eleven, and Coach Hamer, of the senior team, were on Weber field this afternoon, carrying their respective prospects through warm preliminary tactics.

The freshmen team is without a coach, but their manager is carrying on hard work with the new athletes.

The football season will open Monday, October 13, with two games, when the seniors and juniors tie up and the soph and freshmen meet.

Tie Game Played

TOKIO, Sept. 30.—The Waseda university baseball team and the visiting nine from the University of Washington, Seattle, played a tie, the game being interrupted by darkness.

Good Golf Games

ROME, Ga., Sept. 30.—The championship golf tournament of the Coosa Country club has closed with the award of cups. The championship cup was won by R. D. Walter, while Mrs. Burnett Norton won the championship in the ladies' matches. The runner-up in the first flight was Creswell Graves, and the consolation prize of six golf balls was won by Simpson Dean. In the second flight the silver cup was won by R. M. Gibson, and in the third flight by L. F. Gillette. Plans are being made to enlarge the golf course to eighteen holes, which will make it one of the best in the south.

the present will be disappointing. The Government is making no proposition to buy off-hand in this case. The safest and surest opportunity for the farmer is to sell his land and build houses that will bring him the most money. The profit is in the cheap lot of houses, and the farmer can make some, regardless of where it is. He can either get a lot of $200,000, or a lot of $100,000, or $50,000, or $25,000, or $12,500, or $6,250, or $3,125, or $1,562, or $781, or $390, or $195, or $97, or $48, or $24, or $12, or $6, or $3, or $1, or $0.50, or $0.25, or $0.12, or $0.06, or $0.03, or $0.01, or $0.005, or $0.002, or $0.001, or $0.0005, or $0.0002, or $0.0001, or $0.00005, or $0.00002, or $0.00001, or $0.000005, or $0.000002, or $0.000001, or $0.0000005, or $0.0000002, or $0.0000001, or $0.00000005, or $0.00000002, or $0.00000001, or $0.000000005, or $0.000000002, or $0.000000001, or $0.0000000005, or $0.0000000002, or $0.0000000001, or $0.00000000005, or $0.00000000002, or $0.00000000001, or $0.000000000005, or $0.000000000002, or $0.000000000001, or $0.0000000000005, or $0.0000000000002, or $0.0000000000001, or $0.00000000000005, or $0.00000000000002, or $0.00000000000001, or $0.000000000000005, or $0.000000000000002, or $0.000000000000001, or $0.0000000000000005, or $0.0000000000000002, or $0.0000000000000001, or $0.00000000000000005, or $0.00000000000000002, or $0.00000000000000001, or $0.000000000000000005, or $0.000000000000000002, or $0.000000000000000001, or $0.0000000000000000005, or $0.0000000000000000002, or $0.0000000000000000001, or $0.00000000000000000005, or $0.00000000000000000002, or $0.00000000000000000001, or $0.000000000000000000005, or $0.000000000000000000002, or $0.000000000000000000001, or $0.0000000000000000000005, or $0.0000000000000000000002, or $0.0000000000000000000001, or $0.00000000000000000000005, or $0.00000000000000000000002, or $0.00000000000000000000001, or $0.000000000000000000000005, or $0.000000000000000000000002, or $0.000000000000000000000001, or $0.0000000000000000000000005, or $0.0000000000000000000000002, or $0.0000000000000000000000001, or $0.00000000000000000000000005, or $0.00000000000000000000000002, or $0.00000000000000000000000001, or $0.000000000000000000000000005, or $0.000000000000000000000000002, or $0.000000000000000000000000001, or $0.0000000000000000000000000005, or $0.0000000000000000000000000002, or $0.0000000000000000000000000001, or $0.00000000000000000000000000005, or $0.00000000000000000000000000002, or $0.00000000000000000000000000001, or $0.000000000000000000000000000005, or $0.000000000000000000000000000002, or $0.000000000000000000000000000001, or $0.0000000000000000000000000000005, or $0.0000000000000000000000000000002, or $0.0000000000000000000000000000001, or $0.00000000000000000000000000000005, or $0.00000000000000000000000000000002, or $0.00000000000000000000000000000001, or $0.000000000000000000000000000000005, or $0.000000000000000000000000000000002, or $0.000000000000000000000000000000001, or $0.0000000000000000000000000000000005, or $0.0000000000000000000000000000000002, or $0.0000000000000000000000000000000001, or $0.00000000000000000000000000000000005, or $0.00000000000000000000000000000000002, or $0.00000000000000000000000000000000001, or $0.000000000000000000000000000000000005, or $0.000000000000000000000000000000000002, or $0.000000000000000000000000000000000001, or $0.0000000000000000000000000000000000005, or $0.0000000000000000000000000000000000002, or $0.0000000000000000000000000000000000001, or $0.00000000000000000000000000000000000005, or $0.00000000000000000000000000000000000002, or $0.00000000000000000000000000000000000001, or $0.000000000000000000000000000000000000005, or $0.000000000000000000000000000000000000002, or $0.000000000000000000000000000000000000001, or $0.0000000000000000000000000000000000000005, or $0.0000000000000000000000000000000000000002, or $0.0000000000000000000000000000000000000001, or $0.005, or $0.002, or $0.001, or $0.0005, or $0.0002, or $0.0001, or $0.005, or $0.002, or $0.001, or $0.0005, or $0.0002, or $0.0001, or $0.005, or $0.002, or $0.001, or $0.0005, or $0.0002, or $0.0000000
